This Week at Camp

As we prepare to bid our campers goodbye for the summer, our last week of camp followed the theme "Best of the Best." First of all... our campers have truly been the Best of the Best!

They've grown tremendously-- not just physically, but in their development too. They've learned kindness, tolerance, acceptance, accountability, and how to accept success and disappointments.

This week, we repeated our favorite activities from each of the past weeks' themes. The Science Explorers week received high marks, with our campers asking to repeat many of the previous experiments. Adjustments were made and the salt volcano came out better than ever!

On one of our last days this week, our campers headed over to Finnegan's for our Good Morning sing-off contest.

Congratulations to Aiden who took first place, and to Mahogany who came in a close second for the Finnegan's Recreation Center winners. The sing off competition ended with the 2 camp sites tying.

Great job to both camps!!

Our final trip for the summer was to the camper's favorite:
The Funplex.

What an amazing summer...
Therapy Solutions Staff wishes all of our campers a successful school year!
